

Free Riffs

Hey Soul Sister

Made popular by : Train

Music notation for 'Hey Soul Sister' in E major. The tempo is 98 BPM. The first section consists of two measures of chords E and B, followed by a guitar solo. The solo starts with a power chord at the 7th fret of the high E string, then continues with a series of eighth-note chords. The guitar tab below shows the strings being muted with '7' and then strummed with '9'. The tuning is standard (E, A, D, G, B, E). Measures 1 and 2 are shown.

Music notation for 'Hey Soul Sister' in C#m. The section begins at measure 3 with a power chord at the 9th fret of the high E string. It then transitions to an A major chord at the 5th fret. The guitar tab shows the strings being muted with '9' and then strummed with '5'. Measures 3 and 4 are shown.

This notated music represents an interpretation of the original.
It is simply a guide to assist in determining the notes to play, and in no way replaces the original score